Are you a candidate for dental implants?

Ask yourself the following

Questions:

7. Am I missing one or more teeth?
  8. Do I hide my smile because of unsightly spaces between my teeth or because I am missing teeth?
  9. Do I lack confidence when I smile, speak or eat?
  10. Am I having trouble eating, chewing or speaking properly?
  11. Are my teeth loose, or am I getting or in need of treatment for advanced gum disease?
  12. Do I have dentures that slip or cause sore spots when I chew?
  13. Do my dentures need to be relined frequently because of bone resorption?
  14. Do I carry my complete partial dentures in my pocket or leave them at home?
  15. Am I having any problems with existing crowns or bridges, either functionally or cosmetically?
1. Are the teeth holding my bridge loosening or moving?
  2. Can I wait three to nine months for the entire implant process to be completed?
  3. Will I be willing to commit to the high standard of home care that is necessary to properly maintain a dental implant?
  4. Will I follow up with regular dental checkups?
  5. Do I believe that my life could be improved if my teeth were improved?

If you answered "yes" to one or more of these questions, you may be a candidate for the dental implant procedure.
